Be Productive Anywhere

harmon.ie enables you to be fully productive, in and out of your office, right from the places you already spend your work time - email, Office applications, and your mobile devices. harmon.ie's key capabilities include the following:

- Upload documents and emails to SharePoint directly from Outlook and Office apps.
- Treat emails as documents of record by storing them in SharePoint with metadata.
- Discover documents and emails quickly, for managing clients/cases as well as to support audits and ediscovery.
- Access emails and documents offline.
- Share emails and documents 'on the fly' using SharePoint and One Drive for Business.
- Preview SharePoint documents and email from Outlook.
- Search for people and expertise.
- Identify important emails for saving on SharePoint, and tag them using auto-generated 'topic' tags.
- Easily discover important Office 365 emails and documents, organized by familiar topics like product name, project title, or account name.

Ensure The Success Of Your SharePoint/Office 365 Initiative

By promoting universal SharePoint access, harmon.ie helps ensure information governance and compliance by driving SharePoint adoption, preventing data leakage, eliminating document chaos, increasing project visibility, and even reducing the cost of email storage.

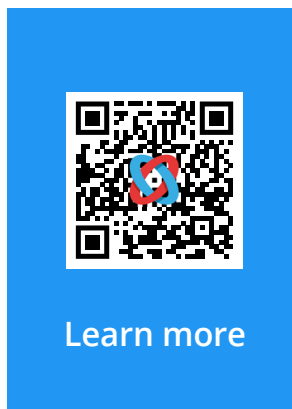

View your Office 365 documents and emails, organized by familiar topics like product, project, and client names. Using NLP and the intelligence of the Microsoft Graph, harmon.ie delivers information by topics... the way you think.

About harmon.ie

harmon.ie puts the human at the center of the Digital Workplace by helping technology serve knowledge workers. harmon.ie invented the first topic computing experience in which Office 365 emails, documents, and notifications are delivered by familiar business topics, in one simple interface.

Thousands of enterprise customers already count on harmon.ie to provide business solutions built upon SharePoint and Office 365. harmon.ie is a Microsoft Partner of the Year Finalist and an Office 365 App of the Year award recipient.

harmon.ie is a suite of enterprise-grade apps that can be centrally-deployed and managed across all platforms, without requiring modifications to your SharePoint server infrastructure. Administrators can pre-configure SharePoint sites and preferences, and measure business worker engagements.
